

WEEE Policy

The Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment Directive (WEEE) is an EU initiative to protect the environment by reducing the amount of electrical equipment including PCs, servers, printers, laptops and other electrical products going into landfill sites.

S A Associates Management Training Limited will undertake their responsibility as a training provider to dispose of these goods in line with European legislation through a register waste contractor.